DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 5, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 5, "in any case" renders the claim indefinite. It is unclear what is meant by "four ply in any case" and this renders the metes and bounds of the claim unascertainable.

Likewise, "in any case" as recited in claim 1, line 11 renders the claim indefinite.

Claim 1 recites "middle plies" in lines 3 and 11, and "inner plies" in line 9. It appears that these are the same plies and that the claim is reciting inconsistent claim terminology. Alternatively, the relationship between the middle plies and inner plies should be more clearly recited.

Claim 1, lines 7-8 recites "the carding method" without proper antecedent basis. It is unclear what carding method is being referred to.

In claim 1, line 12, the recitation of "unlike" pulp fibers is confusing in that it is unclear in what manner they are "unlike", and it is unclear in comparison to what they are "unlike".

Art Unit: 3765

In claim 5, line 3, the phrase "or the like " renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear what is encompassed by this limitation.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 5, and 6 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
